ADMINISTRATION DEFENSE OF LEAGUE NATIONS

LOVETT OFFERS RAILROAD PLAN

Union Pacific Line President Suggests Solution of Present Problem.

CAPITAL IS PREPARED

Proposal Includes as Fundamental Principle Necessity of Legislation That Will Give Financiers a "Business Chance."

New York, July 14.—Suggestions to members of congress for "a sound solution of the railroad problem" by Robert S. Lovett, president of the Union Pacific railroad system, former head of the division of capital expenditures of the United States Railroad administration, made public here, included as a fundamental principle the necessity of legislation that will give railroad capital "a business chance."

"If congress will enact the necessary laws giving railroad capital a business chance," declared Judge Lovett, "I believe that capital will take a business risk and the money required to provide the requisite railroad facilities for the future will be forthcoming."

Lines Face Four Contingencies.

Mr. Lovett said that, in his opinion, the country is confronted with four contingencies: Inadequate and poor service, government ownership, a federal guaranty of a reasonable return upon railroad capital, or reasonable rate-fixing by a government agency, the latter providing "consideration of the needs of traffic and the carrier, with the right of each carrier to keep whatever profit it can make out of rates so established, by good management, good service, economy, wise investment and success in competing for business."

Regarding rate-making, Judge Lovett maintained that the regulation provided by congress "should require that the rates be sufficient to enable the carriers to provide the requisite service and facilities, protect existing investments and provide the new capital necessary in the public interest," as advocated by the Committee of Railroad Executives and submitted to the senate committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

Favors Federal Incorporation. Judge Lovett, likewise, favors five other features of the railroad committee's report as being remedial and "wise as a national railroad policy," namely: compulsory federal incorporation, exclusive federal regulation of securities and rates, the creation of a department of transportation in the President's cabinet, the head of which would have power "to act quickly and deal with emergencies," and modification of restrictions on railroad consolidation and provision for the merging of lines when in the public interest.

"Our railroad transportation system," he said, "which is essentially national, should be rescued from the irresponsible and conflicting state agencies, and brought under uniform control and regulated in the national interest, except as to strictly local matters."

ALLEGES CRUELTY IN ARMY

House Member Says Soldiers Were Beaten and Starved.

Washington, July 14.—Investigation of charges of cruelty to American soldiers arrested in France and placed in prisons in and near Paris will be conducted by a subcommittee of the special house committee investigating war expenditures.

Accusations made in the house by Representative Dallinger will be inquired into first.

"Assertions are made that our loved ones were beaten, clubbed, starved—all in the name of democracy," Mr. Dallinger said, "that men caught in the web of the American military police system of Paris were placed in prison pens squalid than those of Andersonville."

HAS PRO-AMERICAN POLICY

Count von Bernstorff Also Sees Hope in World League.

Berlin, July 14.—Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador at Washington, writing in the weekly Democratic Germany, advocates a pro-American policy and points out that a revision of the treaty of peace can come only through the league of nations.

"When Germany is received into the league," he says, "she can hope for a world order checking imperialism by individual powers and bringing about a system binding peoples together across the frontiers of states."

QUEEN WILHELMINA

Asked to Prevent Extradition of Former Kaiser.

The former empress of Germany has telegraphed the queen of Holland, it was reported at Amsterdam, imploring her to prevent the extradition of her husband, the former German emperor.

VETOES TWO MEASURES

President Disapproves Repeal of Daylight Saving Law.

Wilson Rejects Sundry Civil Bill on Ground That Funds Are Too Restricted.

Washington, July 15.—President Wilson's veto of the agricultural appropriation bill rescinded the daylight saving law from repeal.

The President also vetoed the sundry civil appropriation bill because, he said, by restricting funds, it crippled the work of rehabilitating and restoring disabled soldiers and sailors to civil life.

The latter veto apparently was accepted by congress without contest, and the sundry civil bill went back to committee to be reformed.

Veto of daylight saving was not accepted so readily, although the prevailing opinion was that a necessary two-thirds vote to repass it over the President's head probably would not be mustered.

The first test will come in the house when, according to announcement, Republican Leader Mondell or Chairman Hagen of the Agriculture committee will move the repassage of the bill with the daylight saving repeal intact, over the presidential veto.

Both bills provide funds for which agencies of the government long have been waiting. They already are months behind schedule because they failed of ordinary passage in the last congress.

BRITISH TRADE IMPROVING

Exports and Imports for May Show Large Increase.

London, July 14.—British exports for May amounted to about $321,722,710, imports were about $678,285,255, re-exports were about $57,477,210.

The American Chamber of Commerce in London points out that, compared with the preceding month, April, which was three working days shorter, imports rose by over $116,125,000. British exports by nearly $39,000,000, while re-exports declined by nearly $10,000,000.

NO EAGLE ON GERMAN SEAL

Ebert Signed as "President of the German Empire."

Paris, July 14.—The German ratification document consists of the text of the peace treaty, the annexes, and the convention dealing with the occupation of the Rhineland.

Beside the signature of President Ebert is his seal, a paper wafer bearing the words, "The president of the German empire."

The seal does not contain the imperial eagle.

AMERICANS DISCOVER PLOT

Food Reaching Territory Outside Occupied Area in Germany.

Coblenz, July 14.—American army officers, who uncovered a plot involving wholesale thefts of food and other supplies, have notified the French government that American bacon has been reaching territory outside the occupied region in Germany in French railway cars.

SONS OF NORWAY FINISH CONVENTION HERE IN BRAINERD

That the convention of the Sons of Norway, First District comprising Minnesota, South Dakota and Iowa, had gained international notice was evidenced by the cablegram received from Kristiania, Norway, addressed to Secretary Hallward Askeland at Brainerd and extending greetings from the National Association of Norwegians of the World.

The cablegram read:
Kristiania, Norway
July 11, 1919
Mr. H. Askeland,
Secretary Sons of Norway,
In Convention, Brainerd, Minn.,
United States of America.
Nordmands Forbundet sends hearty greetings to sons and daughters.
(Signed)
DR. FREDRIK GADE,
President.

Officers Elected

Past President—Mons Hauge, Appleton.
President—Judge Lewis Larson, Sioux Falls, S. D.
Vice President—George Reinholdt, St. Paul.
Secretary, Hallward Askeland, Minneapolis.
Treasurer—Andrew Stensrud, Duluth.

Installing Officers

The installing officer was Grand President T. O. Gilbert of Willmar. L. A. Simonson of Duluth was grand marshal and M. P. Thune of Minneapolis assistant grand marshal.

The 1921 convention was won by St. Paul, S. D. its competitor being Crookston.

Delegates Named

Fourteen delegates and three alternates and their alternates were elected to the grand lodge meeting of 1920 which will probably be held in Milwaukee, Wis.

J. A. Bakken, Minneapolis, delegate; John Jacobson, Minneapolis, alternate.

Hans M. Johnson, Minneapolis delegate; Lars O. Haug, alternate.

S. J. Bakke, delegate, A. Halmrast, Minneapolis, alternate.

O. S. Ross, Minneapolis delegate; J. C. Huseby, Minneapolis, alternate.

Big Airship Makes Successful Return Trans-Atlantic Trip

(By United Press)

London, July 14.—The British dirigible R-34 was safely housed in her hangar at Pulham today having completed the first round trip trans-Atlantic air voyage early Sunday. The airship left Minneola, Long Island, at 11:56 Wednesday night New York time, and arrived at Pulham at 3:02 Sunday morning, New York time after a flight of 72 hours and 56 minutes. Her flying time on her first trip across from East Fortune, Scotland, to Minneola, was 100 hours and ten minutes, making the total time for the round trip 163 hours and six minutes. The total journey was about 6200 miles. The airship narrowly escaped a nasty squall by landing at Pulham. An hour and a half later the storm broke. Three attempts at landing were made before finally accomplished.

Wold Resigns Presidency Federal Reserve Bank

Minneapolis, July 14.—Theodore Wold, governor of the ninth district federal reserve bank submitted his resignation today to become vice president of the Northwestern National bank.

FRANCE HOLDS MAMMOTH VICTORY CELEBRATION

(By United Press)

Paris, July 14.—France forgot war today in a mammoth victory celebration. The allied war leaders including General Pershing led thousands of war heroes of all nations in parade.

Bandits Hold Up Windsor Hotel

St. Paul, July 14.—Four bandits early this morning held up the Windsor Hotel securing over two hundred and fifty dollars and watches and jewelry from four men in the lobby and escaped.

(By United Press)

Washington July 14.—The keynote of the administration defense of the league of nations, sounded today in the senate in a speech by Senator Swanson, of Virginia, is "the requirement of concurrence of the United States in every decision of the league of nations council absolutely guarantees this nation against surrendering its sovereignty." Swanson answered in detail every objection to the league covenant. In each case he pointed to the provision that each decision of the council must be by unanimous vote, including that of the United States. After the council has acted congress still has power to refuse American acceptance of the council's advice, said Swanson.

He first answered the objection to article eight on disarmament. "The interest of the United States is amply guarded under this article," said the senator. "No general plan of disarmament presented without our consent, no obligation imposed upon us without the approval of congress, which is entrusted with raising armies and navies."

Article Ten, the storm center of the covenant, is absolutely necessary to world peace, Swanson declared, because it is a solemn pledge by all league members to abstain from wars of conquest. The Monroe doctrine, Swanson declared, is expressly recognized and preserved in the league covenant, as clearly as it possibly could be.

Daylight Savings Repeal Fails In the House

(By United Press)

Washington July 14.—The attempt to over ride President Wilson's veto of the daylight savings repeal failed in the house today by twenty-three votes. The agricultural bill on which the repeal was a rider, was referred to the agricultural committee and probably will be reported again minus the rider.

Severe Storm Causes Great Damages in the Twin Cities

(By United Press)

St. Paul, July 14.—Basements were flooded, wires were cut, gardens were washed out, crops washed out and blown down in and near the Twin Cities in a severe wind, rain and electric storm which broke at midnight. Trees were uprooted and dwellers on the river flats were forced to flee when the river rose rapidly.

VISCOUNT ISHII

Japanese Ambassador Retires From Public Life.

Resignation of Viscount Kikujiro Ishii as Japanese ambassador to the United States and his retirement from public life has been officially announced by the government.

KILLED BY "LOOKOUT"

Minneapolis Policeman Is Shot Near Scene of Burglary.

Gang of Five Were in the Act of Preparing to Blow Safe When Interrupted.

Minneapolis, July 14.—Patrolman John F. Young, 51 years old, was shot by a cracksmen's "lookout," on Second avenue north, near Washington avenue, shortly before daylight, dying at the City hospital 20 minutes later.

Patrolman O. W. Hiding, who was with Young, caught him as he sank wounded to the pavement, making it impossible for Hiding to get his own gun into play immediately.

An instant after the shooting four other yeggmen came running out of the alley near Second avenue, climbed into the touring car from which the bandit leader had fired at Young and escaped down Washington avenue south.

According to the police, the yeggmen were about to blow a safe in the office of the Minneapolis Packing Company, 211 Washington avenue north. The four bandits had gotten out of the machine on Third avenue north and had entered the alley at that point. The driver "lookout" then drove around to Second avenue to wait for them.

An investigation of the packing company's plant disclosed that the cracksmen had not had time to "jimmie" the rear entrance before the shooting occurred on Second avenue. It was said at police headquarters that a considerable sum of money was in the packing company's safe.

Thirty shots were exchanged between Hiding and the bandits.

GOLD STRIKE IN MONTANA

Vein Twelve Inches Wide Discovered on Marion Creek.

Superior, Mont., July 14.—The Golden Sunset Mining company, on Marion creek, fourteen miles from Superior, has made one of the richest strikes in this section, uncovering a vein twelve inches wide, panning $400 in gold, with a slight amount of silver. The strike has caused much excitement in this section.

HARRY S. NEW, JR., INDICTED

Slayer of Sweetheart Will Not Have Preliminary Hearing.

Los Angeles, July 14.—The Los Angeles county grand jury indicted Harry S. New, Jr., for the alleged murder of Miss Freda Lesser. The indictment was said by the district attorney, would eliminate a preliminary hearing and would prevent the disclosure of facts possessed by the prosecutor prior to the jury trial.

ALLEGED WIRE TAPPER HELD

New York Police Charge Man With Being Member of Gang.

New York, July 14.—John McSherry, describing himself as a salesman and alleged by the police to be a member of a gang of "wire tappers" who are credited with fleecing victims out of $1,000,000 in Buffalo, was arrested here. McSherry's arrest followed that of Charles Drucker and William Jarvis.

DE VALERA GIVEN WARM WELCOME

Thousands of Chicago Residents Greet "President of the Irish Republic."

SEEKS AMERICAN HELP

With Regard to Hissing President Wilson at New York Meeting, Visitor Says This Is Not Attitude of the Irish People.

Chicago, July 14.—Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish republic," said on his arrival here "if the people of the United States tell President Wilson they want to support the Irish cause, the president as their representative will carry out their wishes."

De Valera was given a warm reception by Chicagoans. Stepping from the train, he and his party had difficulty in making their way to a waiting automobile. The crowd in the streets was so thick that his car fairly crept to the hotel while thousands shouted, waved flags and shook the "president's" hand.

"With regard to the question of the hissing of the President at an Irish meeting in New York," De Valera said, "this is not the attitude of the Irish people. I believe we can get the support of the American people. President Wilson said he will give his support and I believe he will."

De Valera said that Britain has no more claim to Ireland than Germany had to Belgium. He said that the Peace conference was not merely to settle the question of war, but to straighten out the problems of the world. "The Irish question," he added, "is a matter of human law—the law of justice."

De Valera denied the charge that Ireland was a slacker during the war. "Ireland has been fighting the battle of the small countries for freedom for 700 years," he said. "We were led to believe that the recent great conflict had for one of its principal objects the freedom of all countries. We insist that Ireland is as much entitled to freedom as any other country. I shall answer every question raised by the opposition in my public addresses."

SHIP FITTED WITH NURSERY

Transport Will Bring Home 200 "War Brides" and Infants.

New York, July 14.—The presidential ship George Washington which sails back to France next week, has been fitted up with a nursery to take care of the "war babies" returning on that vessel. Two hundred "war brides" are scheduled to sail on the transport on her next trip from France to this country and, at the request of Dr. G. A. Ricker, the ship's surgeon, the American Red Cross has provided the ship with baby food, milk, clothing and other prerequisites of infantile comfort.

CROWDER'S DUTIES ENDING

Office of Provost Marshal General to Lapse July 15.

Washington, July 14.—Major General Crowder will be relieved of all duties as provost marshal general effective July 15, under orders issued by the War department. When he is relieved it is expected the office will lapse.

General Crowder will continue to serve as judge advocate general on his return from Cuba, where he is assisting the government in recodifying the election laws.

OPERATORS OPPOSE STRIKE

Paris Key Women Give Reasons for Refusing to Join.

Paris, July 14.—The Association of Women Postal and Telegraph employees has addressed a letter to the government announcing that its members will not participate in the general strike on July 21. The letter says that strikes, and the consequent interruption of activity in public services, the railroads, telegraphs and telephones, are one of the principal causes of the increase in the cost of living.

GOING ABROAD IS POPULAR

Civilian Passenger List Near Post-war Record.

New York, July 14.—Three trans-Atlantic liners leaving here carried 3,235 passengers, making a total of 6,540 passengers for the week on six large ships, making it one of the largest weeks in departures of civilians for abroad that has been recorded since 1914.

Especially heavy is the movement of third class passengers for Italy.

New York City and her thousands of visitors are to have a chance to see just what manner of flying machine it was that first crossed the Atlantic. This photograph shows officers and men of the Rockaway Naval Air Station at work setting up the NC-4 in Central Park for public exhibition. The naval flying boat was brought back recently aboard the U.S.S. Arctostock. After the exhibition the plane will be shipped to Washington and placed in the Smithsonian Institution.

Miss Lucille Dodson, age 9. Daughter of Guy Dodson, Owner of World's Fair Shows

ARRIVED FROM EAU CLAIRE WIS.

In Winter Time She Remains at Chicago and Attends School on the West Side

Little Miss Lucille Dodson, age 9, daughter of Clarence Dodson, or "Guy" as he is familiarly known, visited the Dispatch office on Saturday. Lucille told of the carnival company, "The World's Fair Shows" owned by her father and which would be at Brainerd for a week.

At Eau Claire, Wis., the company attracted large crowds. The weather was good. In winter time, said Lucille, she makes her home in Chicago and attends school on the west side.

Her father arrived in Brainerd on Sunday personally attending to many details of his carnival business.

Beavers Copy Tepees of Indians.

In the pond were a number of beaver houses which looked like small Indian tepees, wrote Samuel Scoville, Jr., in Boys' Life. Most of them were built in water several feet deep and were from three to four feet above the surface and about five feet in diameter. One, however, was a huge one, built in deep water, and fully twice as large as any other. It was made mostly of peeled cottonwood poles and stood on a firm foundation of mud and sticks built up from the bottom. The poles leaned together from the top and had been woven in and out with thick brush and plastered with mud and turf until the walls were three feet thick.

The Dust is

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for the United Press)

Sweet Nettle in a gown of net And hose in mesh more netlike yet Was really such a vision fair She soon enmeshed a millionaire, She had him netted from the start He offered her his hand and heart.

New York, July 14—Unlike clouds, the summer girls are not to have silver linings this season. They run rather to dusky black ones. At least for their diaphanous lingerie frocks with their cobweb lace and sheer embroidery and gossamer materials, slips of black taffeta are the very smartest foundations to show off their fairy-like charms. It is really smart to keep it dark when it comes to anything like a slip now and then and though slips of black taffeta may occasionally encounter black looks, they will never be in the modern woman's black books, as long as they are in the fashion books.

Lingerie frocks have been worked out to more exquisite perfection than ever this summer and in the fineness of their materials and the artistry of their handwork and design they are really dreams. Not all of them, of course, are to be worn over the startling new black taffeta slips. A touch of color, be it ever slight, is noted on them, however, one and all. Some have a quaint and vivid ribbon flower at the girdle or caught at some puffed up portion of the beaufant skirt, while rainbow girdles of three or four shades of pale tinted ribbons is a favorite finish.

There is no such thing as the simple life for a skirt any more on these lingerie models—or on any of the sheer organdies and thin summer frocks, for that matter. Indeed they are all leading double or triple lives, with two and three tiers or one long tunic effect over a tight undershirt, or else a much puffed up and fluffed up overskirt over a tight ankle length under one. These tight undershirt portions are very elaborately fussed up with tiny lace ruffles, tucks and insertings and their hems strive for just one startling effect after another. One of the most novel hems is on a dove gray organdie, and the bottom of the skirt is loosely rolled up in a crushed mass and caught every now and then with a wine-colored rose. This same model has flowing bell sleeves and a crushed surplice collar caught at the girdle with three of the same anti-prohibition flowers.

Some of the undershirts are so draped in the middle, as to simulate pantalettes and beneath an overskirt of flowered organdie, they are especially quaint and effective.

The lovely huge floppy hats of leg-horn, milan and crin, loaded with novelties in the artificial flower line, like tiger lillies, orchids, morning glories, nasturtiums, dahlias, hydrangeas and even snow balls and always the more commonplace but effective field combination of corn flowers, daisies, buttercups and poppies, are fit crowning glories to the lovely lingerie frocks and organdie dresses of the summer girl. The all-organdie hats to match the organdie dresses are making a great bid for summer girl favor, but as yet they have not gone to her head like the charming straw ones. Destructing little white lace edged frills, peeping out around the head below the hat brim like the lacy frills below the overskirt hems, smack off Dolly Varden days.

Even with such charming head gear, a wise maid has to keep her mind on her feet these days, for the startling new hem finishes to the fashionable frocks do attract the eyes of all beholders feet-wards so. Hence much care and attention must be paid to just the right dainty pump of satin or suede, glistening with its huge cut steel buckle, and the exquisite silken hose that now covers or rather uncovers her ankle must vie with the lingerie frock for delicate lace work and diaphaneity. Indeed, after the sun's rays have had a few torrid July days chance at such open-work ankles. I rather imagine the summer girl will have to adopt white silk underslip hose to show off the lacy design or her stockings, even as she wears the black taffeta slips to show off the lacy designs of her lingerie frocks.

PERFECT IMAGE OF HIMSELF

Japanese Wood Worker Credited With Production of Really Marvelous Work of Art.

The most marvelous wood workman in the world is Hananuma Masakichi, of Tokio, Japan, who has carved a figure in wood so like himself that when the two are placed side by side it is said to be almost impossible to tell which lives and breathes and which does not. By several connoisseurs in art this wooden figure has been pronounced the most perfect and human image of man ever made. Masakichi has faithfully reproduced every scar, vein and wrinkle to be seen on his body. The figure is composed of 2,000 pieces of wood dovetailed and jointed with such skill that no seams can be detected.

Tiny holes were drilled for the reception of hairs, and the wooden figure has glass eyes and eyelashes in which no dissimilarity to Masakichi's own can be detected.

The Japanese artist posed between two mirrors while modeling this figure and for some time after its completion he posed frequently beside it, to the confusion of spectators, who were often entirely at a loss as to which was the artist. The figure stands with a little mask in one hand and an instrument for carving in the other; the lifelike eyes are apparently gazing at the mask, and the face wears a look of intense absorption.

BOTH MEN CONVICTED

Jackson (Minn.) Jury Finds A. C. Townley and J. Gilbert Guilty.

President of Nonpartisan League and Former Organizer Were Accused of Conspiracy.

Jackson, Minn., July 14.—A. C. Townley, president of the Nonpartisan League, and Joseph Gilbert, a former organizer, were found guilty by a jury here on the charge of conspiracy to teach disloyalty in violation of the Minnesota law. Neither Townley nor Gilbert showed emotion.

The jurors announced they took two ballots. The first was nine to three for conviction. The second was unanimous.

After receiving the verdict, Townley made the following statement:

"Judges and lawyers may quibble, but in the court of public opinion the common sense of the people will never merely deny he is disloyal and be forbidden to prove by constructive testimony that he is loyal."

The defense asserted that speeches by Townley and Gilbert, at mass meetings in Minnesota early in 1918, were not disloyal in their references to the war. These speeches were made the basis of the indictment, together with circulation of the Nonpartisan League's so-called war program, over Townley's signature.

During the three-weeks' trial the defense has made repeated charges that the case is an outgrowth of efforts to injure the Nonpartisan League. Testimony along those lines and also testimony by Representatives James M. Baer, and North Dakota state officials concerning the loyalty of Townley and the League, was excluded by Judge E. C. Denn.

Judge Dean granted a stay of sentence until Sept. 15 to permit the preparation of the court record and the making of motion for a new trial.

JURY ALONE MUST DECIDE

Samuel Untermyer Says Congress Cannot Define Intoxicants.

Washington, July 14.—The right of congress to define intoxicating beverages was denied by Samuel Untermyer, a New York lawyer, in testifying before the senate judiciary subcommittee.

Mr. Untermyer told the committee that neither under the wartime prohibition act nor the constitutional amendment could congress say that any particular percentage of alcoholic content constituted an intoxicating liquor. Both the act and the amendment, he argued, left this as a question of fact which could be determined only before a jury.

PRICES WILL REMAIN HIGH

Predicted No Drop Will Occur Until Bonds Are Redeemed.

Washington, July 14.—Continuation of high prices may be expected at least until Liberty Bonds are paid off. Representative Osborne predicted in a statement inserted in the Congressional Record.

"There is every reason to believe the purchasing power of money will continue relatively low and that the cost of things necessary to existence will continue, as measured by money, relatively high," he said.

FIVE FIREMEN ARE KILLED

Buried Under Debris When Burning Building Collapsed.

Philadelphia, July 14.—Five firemen were killed and 31 others injured in a blaze that destroyed a three-story brick warehouse of the Burlap Bag manufacturing plant of Jacob Potash & Bros. here. The victims were plunged into flames and debris when the roof and three walls collapsed. Three saved themselves from serious injury by a spectacular slide down a tottering ladder.

DESIRES FULL REPARATION

Australia Wants Germany to Pay Her Entire War Debt.

Melbourne, Australia, July 14.—"If the bill for the war losses does not include the war debt resting on us, Australia will be gravely disappointed," declared Acting Prime Minister Watt in a statement in comment on the peace treaty.

BALLOON LANDS ON ENGLISH SOIL

British Dirigible Completes Its Return Voyage From the United States.

TRIP TAKES 75 HOURS

Members of the Crew Were Quickly and Eagerly Surrounded by Friends Who Were Waiting for Them at the Airdrome.

Pulham, Norfolk, England, July 14.—The dirigible R-34 arrived at the air station here at 6:56 o'clock, Greenwich mean time, completing her round trip from the British Isles to the United States and return.

The R-34 poked her nose out of the clouds northeast of the village and, after circling the flying field three times, glided gently to the ground and ten minutes later was housed in the dirigible shed. The voyage from Long Island was without particular incident and was completed in approximately 75 hours.

Soon after daybreak 400 men stationed at the airdrome were awakened to prepare for the landing. Lookouts took position in towers and wireless operators prepared to pick up messages from the airship.

Shouts from those on the field greeted the first sight of the long gray body low on the horizon. As the R-34 approached the field, she dropped from a height of 5,000 feet to 2,000 feet.

When Major G. H. Scott, her commander, had manoeuvred the airship into position for landing, the water ballast was released to steady her and a rope was thrown from the bow. Eager hands grasped the rope and the giant ship moved across the field to the shed where berthing her was completed without accident.

Play "Call of Duty."

A military band played "The Call of Duty" as the airship began to settle and then changed to the strains of "See, the Conquering Hero Comes."

As the ship was warped into the shed the band played "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

The tired, unshaven, but smiling men who composed the crew quickly climbed from the gondola and were greeted warmly and with many slaps on the back by officers and soldiers.

"The voyage home has been without incident," said Major Scott. "We want breakfast."

Members of the crew were eagerly surrounded by friends who were waiting at the airdrome. George Graham, the chief engineer, proudly carried his pet kitten which was born at East Fortune.

WHITLOCK GETS NEW POST

Minister to Belgium to Be Ambassador to Italy.

Paris, July 14.—Brand Whitlock has been named as American ambassador to Italy.

Brand Whitlock at present holds the post of minister to Belgium, to which he was appointed in 1913. Mr. Whitlock's appointment as ambassador to Italy has been under consideration for some weeks past. He succeeds Thomas Nelson Page, who recently resigned.

HEAR OF BLOCKADE RAISE

People in Rhineland Informed of Trade Resumption.

Coblenz, July 14.—The inter-Allied Rhineland commission issued a notice to civilians in the occupied areas that trade would be re-established immediately between the interior of Germany and the occupied areas, under certain restrictions. This action was taken after official notification from Paris that the blockade had been lifted.

TURKISH LEADERS TO DIE

Courtmarshal Condemns Three for Their Conduct During War.

Constantinople, July 14.—Enver Pasha, Talaat Bey and Djemal Pasha, the leaders of the Turkish government during the war, were condemned to death by a Turkish courtmarshal investigating the conduct of the Turkish government during the war period.

Fishing for Mines in the North Sea

(By United Press)

London, (By Mail).—Eighty U. S. navy mine sweepers are busy today in the North Sea at a job almost as dangerous and, from the viewpoint of shipping, quite as important as hunting submarines.

They are clearing away the largest mine barage in the world. This barage, nearly 80 per cent American-made, nearly 80 per cent American-made, is about 200 miles long and 45 miles wide. It closes the North Sea from Scotland to Norway.

The task has already resulted in a casualty toll of four vessels damaged, one officer killed and others wounded. The U. S. S. Bobolink, the first victim had her stern blown in by an exploding mine. Lieutenant Bruce was killed. Several other officers and men were rescued.

The U. S. S. Patuxent was badly damaged about the stern and the U. S. S. Rail slightly damaged. All were of about 1,000 tons. The fourth was a smaller boat.

Captain Sexton, N. S. Naval chief of staff in England, said the Americans are getting "hep" to the undertaking and overcoming many of its difficulties.

Thus far the fleet has covered an area containing 4,000 mines. Of these, 45 per cent have been accounted for. Where the remaining 65 per cent are nobody knows. Captain Sexton estimated the mine hunt would keep the sweepers busy until October or November. It involves a personnel of about 2,500.

When the word was first mouthed around through the ranks that American gobs were going to pick up the mines they helped to lay a short time before, the general opinion was that it would be one of the most thrilling jobs yet. And no one has been disappointed. Equipped with maps showing approximately where every mine was dropped, the flotilla started out in twos, each pair dragging a cable between them.

The mines, the map said, were sown in strings. All the sweepers had to do was to straddle the line, pass from one end to the other, and the cable, between them, would do the rest.

Of course, the particular mine in question wouldn't be the only one to go off. The concussion would always set off others immediately adjoining, and probably still others adjoining these. These two exigencies were provided for on the map under the titles "zone of extreme danger," "zone of possible danger," and beyond that "zone of safety." In addition, there would be a few other mines free-lancing around in all three zones.

The first few days were rather disastrous. Captain Sexton and his staff in London began to dread opening the morning's dispatches. Gradually, with Yankee resourcefulness, the Americans seemed to be getting on top of the job, until now Captain Sexton is confident they are going to clean up the assignment with minimum losses.

RECOLLECTIONS OF KA-BE-NAH- GWEY-WENCE

Historical Pageant Produced at Cass Lake Direction Northern Minnesota Development Assn.

PICTURE GIVEN IN 5 EPOCHS

Early Life of Indians Shown Hundred Years Ago, and Changes Wrought Since That Time

The "Recollections of Ka-Be-Nah-Gwey-Wence," a historical pageant produced at Cass Lake under the direction of the Northern Minnesota Minnesota Development association and the scenario of which was written by Fred T. Lincoln of this city, will be shown at the Best theatre at a date to be decided upon next week.

The picture was shown to a group of newspaper men and prominent local critics at the Best theatre recently and many compliments were freely given on the unique spectacle of Indian life in which John Smith, the star performer, aged 117 years and probably the oldest living being in the United States figures.

In Five Epochs

This picture is written in five epochs and approximately 1200 feet are required in the presentation of the same. Old John Smith is seen, seated on a large rock on the shores of the Norway Beach, Cass Lake and is relating his story of the past to Mr. Otto Koll of Cass Lake, the historian of the pageant and a young man who has given much of his time in looking up the early day history of the Chippewas. Mr. Koll is a favorite with the Chippewa Chiefs and their braves, speaks their language fluently and did much in handling the Indians in the presentation of the pageant.

Past and Present

The epochs deal in order, first, with the early day life of the Indians one hundred years ago, the coming of General Cass to that section of the state, signing of the Peace Treaty with the Indians, the coming of the lumber-jacks and the lumbering industry and later the arrival of government agents, who destroy a saloon and put "General John Barleycorn" out of business. This era is followed by the coming of the settler and primitive farm scenes of early days are shown in an attractive manner.

Keenly Realistic

Mingled with the scenes showing the lumbering industry are log rolling contests engaged in by lumber-jacks, the felling of trees and sawing them up into logs and other realistic features of lumbering days. In the latter epochs, a bevy of pretty summer girls in bathing suits are seen, diving from the decks of a launch and enjoying themselves in the waters of the beautiful lake. Canoes and other craft move here and there over the waters of the lake. This scene is a lively one and very attractive because of the pretty girls who enter into it.

Progress Portrayed

Farm scenes of yesterday and today are shown in the picture and the beautiful summer resort of M. M. Martin of Minneapolis, with its commodious dining hall, guests quarters, boat dock and other features, is also shown. The city of Bemidji is given considerable prominence and a lively street scene in that thriving town appears in the picture. Golfers are seen at play on the golf links at Bemidji and there are many attractive summer scenes including bathing and diving feats by summer boys and girls.

The intent of the film is to show the progress made in Northern Minnesota in one hundred years and old John Smith is represented as relating this story to young Koll, his youthful friend of the white race.

Lincoln's Idea

The idea of this film originated in the mind of a Brainerd man, Fred T. Lincoln, secretary of the Northern Minnesota Development association and who gave much hard work and time to shaping it for presentation to the public. In conjunction with this film, Mr. Lincoln plans to show a moving picture of a fishing party at Leech Lake, taken some weeks ago, in which prominent local people figure. These two reels, together with a feature reel to be put on by Mr. Workman of the Best theatre the same evening, will give the local public one of the finest moving picture entertainments it has been their privilege to enjoy for some time.

The pageant film will appeal particularly to the young people and to tourists who have not seen Indians in their primitive life. The evolution in Northern Minnesota in a century is remarkable and it is the consensus of opinion that no more convincing vehicle could have been conceived than this film.

Local people should make their plans to witness the presentation of this picture and that of the fishing

BRAINERD 6, CROSBY 4

Range Team Succumbs to Hitting of the Brainerd Team in the Sixth Inning at Crosby

ROY PATTERSON NEW FLINGER

Pitches Consistent Ball and Fields Well—Faced by Famed Wook, Port-Sider

It was some game at Crosby on Sunday and measured by the whooping of Crosby when they led in the fourth and fifth innings, and again by the yelling of Brainerd when they ran in three runs in the sixth inning, it was one of the most exciting in Central Minnesota League history, the final score 6 to 4 ending in a victory for Brainerd.

It was played in remarkably fast time. Not a player lagged and the pitchers did not fuss around, but pitched as though for a time record. There was an absence of arguing and the large crowd present expressed itself as satisfied at seeing a game well played from start to finish.

Roy Patterson, one of the greatest pitchers the game has ever produced, was on the mound for Brainerd, against Portsider Wook of Crosby, the league leaders. Playing Manager Cook made a ten-strike in signing this wonderful pitcher. Patterson has resigned from the Minneapolis American Association and immediately signed with Brainerd to help them in their last drive for the Central Minnesota League pennant.

Fuller a star catcher, was at the receiving end and so both battery points were well looked after.

Crosby, Little Falls and Brainerd are all bunched for first place in the league, in fact the five clubs are so evenly matched that Ironton, one of the best clubs, which was in last place has an excellent chance as yet, to win the pennant.

The Brainerd-Crosby game on Sunday was about evenly balanced on hitting. Sensational fielding was pulled off by Left Fielder Nelson of Crosby who hooked one from the air with his left mitt, rolled over and still held on, and Left Fielder Richardson of Brainerd who grabbed one on a dead run in the same territory. Both were most difficult catches and drew the applause of the crowd. Crosby and Brainerd fans indiscriminately.

Brainerd scored in the second inning. Cook landed a hit, Benda flew to First Baseman Kline. Richardson walked. Sheffield hit landed Cook with the first run.

In the sixth all came to bat except Fuller. It was a hard inning on Wook, three runs and three hits being made. Hits were made by Templeton Benda and Carlson and the runs by Templeton, Cook, and Benda.

In the seventh Templeton made first on an error of Pitcher Wook, was advanced by a sacrifice by Cook and scored on Benda's hit.

In the ninth Stallman hit, was advanced by Fuller's sacrifice, and Templeton's sacrifice and scored on Cook's hit.

On the Crosby side a hit by Lovdahl and a passed ball, hit by Dibble and a stolen base were factors in landing their two runs.

In the seventh a hit by Krueger and a single by Kline eventually scored Krueger with a run.

In the ninth Krueger rapped out a two-bagger. Lewis was put in as a pinch hitter and made first on an error of Second Baseman Benda. He was caught on second by a throw from Templeton to Benda. On a fielder's choice Krueger sprinted home.

The score by innings:

	R	H	E
Brainerd	0	10	6
Crosby	0	10	4

Batteries—Patterson and Fuller; Wook and Petrabor. Umpire Ray Warren former mayor of Tromsund.

The box score will be published tomorrow.

Ironton a Winner

Ironton, July 13—Ironton in a 4 to 1 game defeated Verdale. Both made errors. The score by innings:

	R	H	E
Verdale	1	5	3
Ironton	4	6	4

Batteries—Bye and Malloy; Clemmens and McGarry. Umpires Smith and Bradford.

Men and Women Slow Up

Nowadays many persons wrongfully attribute headache, rheumatic pains, sore, swollen, aching joints and muscles and that "always tired" feeling to on-coming age when the real cause is kidney trouble. scene, as many calls have been received for the film elsewhere. On account of the carnival this week, it has been considered best not to show it until next week.

CARNIVAL SHOW ARRIVES IN CITY

25 Car Train Came from Eau Claire, Wis., on Sunday Night, Red Wagons Unloaded

CITY OF TENTS SPRINGS UP

Connection made with City Electric Lines to Furnish Illumination for Grounds

The 25 cars train of the World's Fair Shows arrived in Brainerd Sunday night at 8:45 o'clock from Eau Claire, Wis. The red wagons were all unloaded at once. The wagons were all hauled to the show grounds, early this morning and the city of tents sprang up like magic.

The red lemonade stands were made ready for a week's business as well as the hot dog and hamburger joints. No carnival is complete without the hot dog and red lemonade, better known as "juice" around the big shows.

From all indications this is one of the biggest shows of its kind on the road.

The circus grounds will be used to stage the big carnival overlooking the Mississippi river, an ideal spot to stage it. The grounds will be well sprinkled each night before the opening and the streets leading out to the lot will be sprinkled each day to keep down the dust.

The company did a big week's business at Eau Claire, Wis., where they played under the auspices of the Moose lodge. A record run was made from St. Paul to Brainerd in four hours and ten minutes.

All the shows are ready for a big business tonight. The concert band will give a concert on the down town streets at 7 o'clock.

RESOLUTION

Be It Resolved: By the First District of the Sons of Norway in annual convention assembled in the City of Brainerd, this 12th day of July, 1919, that it hereby expresses its sincere thanks:

1. To the Mayor of the City of Brainerd for the cordial welcome extended to the officers and delegates.

2. To the City of Brainerd for its splendid hospitality.

3. To the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce for placing at the disposal of the convention its splendid commodious quarters with all its excellent conveniences.

Be It Further Resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the convention and that copies thereof be forwarded to the Mayor of the City of Brainerd and to the Secretary of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce.

Unanimously adopted:

Picnic Sunday

Cars of citizens of Brainerd on Sunday conveyed the delegates to Gull Lake where they were entertained by Sagatun Lodge of Brainerd and enjoyed the splendid view enroute, the bathing, boating and other recreation at the lake side and at Gull View Lodge.

Banquet Saturday Night

The banquet Saturday night at the Ransford hotel was one of the most largely attended in the history of Brainerd. At a long table ranged at the south end of the hall were many of the speakers, Mons Mahlum of Brainerd being toastmaster and O. B. Rasmussen, president of Sagatun Lodge of Brainerd presiding.

Extending from this section were dozens of smaller tables seating six each. The banquet room was filled by Sons of Norway, their daughters and friends.

O. B. Rasmussen

Mons Mahlum, toastmaster, was introduced by Mr. Rasmussen, president of Sagatun Lodge. Mr. Rasmussen expressed his thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for cooperation and thanked also Mayor F. E. Little, and citizens in generally for the kindly reception accorded the district lodge convention.

Mons Mahlum

Mons Mahlum greeted the assemblage with well chosen words and said Brainerd was honored by the visit of so many representative men. He had lived thirty years in Brainerd and never before had he seen so many of the same blood assembled. He introduced the next speaker.

Fred T. Lincoln

Fred T. Lincoln, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, told of his early teaching experiences in the Dakotas, of his acquaintance with the hardy settlers of Scandinavian extraction, of their characteristics.

He drew lessons from this convention for they enabled men to meet as brothers, to aid in work of their communities and all were striving for the general good, for clean, upright citizenship.

T. O. Gilbert

Grand President T. O. Gilbert of Willmar made an inspiring address. He praised the spirit of fraternity which had been and was now a great factor in the upbuilding of America.

Fraternity was expressed in the Declaration of Independence. Fraternity, and not might, shall rule the world, as the Teutoff found to his cost. Cuba, was liberated when American fair play and justice could no longer be disregarded and the brown man of the Philippines saw extended the hand of fraternal brotherhood.

When the hun overran Europe, America said "You shall not enslave the Belgians. They are our brothers. You shall not ravish the women of France. They are our sisters."

The spirit of fraternity was applied to the peace treaty so as to make war impossible.

"A Son of Norway" said Judge Gilbert, "is a man who loves America above any country in the world and would live and die for it. He loves Norway for what she has contributed to America."

"Norway," said Judge Gilbert, "contributed America." He then detailed events in the history of Leif Erickson, of his explorations centuries before Columbus, and later of Columbus' visits in Iceland where he is reported to have gained information regarding the voyages of Erickson to the great country westward across the Atlantic.

Norwegians settled in France and intermarried. Other Norwegians settled in England. They also settled in Ireland, in Scotland.

"We love Norway," said Judge Gilbert in closing, "but we love America above all others. Their colors are the same. We love America for her ideals of government, for the material advantages found, for the service by means of which such ideals and advantages has enabled America to become a guiding star to the world a beacon light to all humanity."

John Nyborg

John Nyborg of Minneapolis sang Bjornson's "Over the High Mountains" and encored, sang in English. He was applauded for his fine singing and enunciation.

Judge Lewis Larson

Judge Lewis Larson, judge of probate of Sioux Falls, S. D., spoke of the citizenship and achievements of Norwegians. "Of all time to live in this world, now is the greatest hour in history," said Judge Larson. "And if it came to selecting location, there is no better place in the world to live than in America," said Judge Larson.

"If given the choice of birthplace, I would select America as has been my experience. But never have I been ashamed or ungrateful that my father and mother were born in Norway and grew up there and I shall always consider it an honor and a distinction that I have imbibed Norwegian literature and history and much credit for that I give to my membership in and association with the Sons of Norway," said Judge Larson.

He expressed his appreciation of the many courtesies shown by Brainerd people. The delegates had enjoyed the beautiful lakes, scenery, etc., but more than that they were impressed by that whole-souled spirit of good fellowship which permeated every one of the citizens of Brainerd.

Duet Sung

Norwegian folk songs, two of them which evoked much applause, were rendered by Secretary Hallward Askeland of Minneapolis and Past President Mons Hauge of Appleton.

Judge Martin Bergh

Judge Martin Bergh of Sioux Falls, S. D., who had extended the invitation to hold the next convention in his city, told of the advantages of sunshine, prosperous South Dakota, the resources of his home town and the welcome which would be accorded the convention when it came to Sioux Falls.

"Take your wives and children with you to South Dakota. Make it a family reunion. I should like to see all of you there," said Judge Bergh.

Mons Hauge

Past President Mons Hauge of Appleton traced unusual incidents in history in a humorous vein and concluded by thanking Brainerd Chamber of Commerce, Sagatun lodge and citizens generally for the courtesy and hospitality shown.

Julius Bauman

Julius Bauman of Carlton, register of deeds there, expressed to the convention the gratitude of fire sufferers in the catastrophe of last year for the aid extended them in their hour of need. He told of the spirit and fortitude the settlers combatted trouble and losses and were now engaged in reconstruction work, building again their homes, fencing their farms, putting in crops and showing that adversity could never shatter any community when they knew they had brothers about them who aided in every way to re-establish them.

Sing America

The big banquet came to a close by the audience arising and singing "America," then giving three cheers for Brainerd.

Orchestral Music

During the serving of the banquet splendid music was rendered by a trio under the direction of Julius Witham. Their selections included classics from Norwegian composers and applause was frequent.

ROLL OF HONOR

*****

Edward Ruiger, of Bay Lake, returned home Saturday from services overseas. He enlisted in February, 1918, and was assigned to the 29th engineers. He served in France 8 months.

Sergt. Marcetich, who saw service in a machine gun battalion, has returned home to Ironton from the war zone.

Forest Clemenger has returned to his home after several months service overseas.

The Test That Tells

There is only one real test for a cough remedy, and that is use. S. M. Oliver, Box 192 R. F. D. 5, Greensboro, S. C., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is just fine. I keep it in the house all the time. It soothes and relieves hay fever asthma, coughs, colds, croup, and bronchial affections. H. P. Dunn. mwf

LEAD THE DISPATCH WANTS

Lighting the Trenches

During the recent war the world came into a full and complete understanding of the value of efficient and comprehensive organization on the part of big business.

One phase of the aid that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was able to render is interesting.

The U. S. Government called on the Company for candles, and in an incredibly short space of time the initial shipment was made.

In all, 285,000,000 candles were shipped from Whiting, Indiana, to France—about 85 candles for every man in the United States uniform.

The Standard Oil Company makes candles from the by-products of crude oil.

Besides serving a most useful and necessary purpose in themselves, the manufacture of candles enables the Company to keep down the manufacturing cost of gasoline, so that you may run your car without great expense for fuel.

This is only a single and minor phase of the part played by the Company in helping to win the war, but it serves to illustrate the usefulness of the Company as a public servant, and the benefits accruing to the world at large from Standard Oil Company (Indiana) operations.

LABOR NEWS

CHANGE OF HOURS
WITH THE BARBERS

Commencing Monday, July 14, the barbers of the city will operate on their new schedule of hours, as made public by the union. This means closing every week day at 6 p. m., except Saturday night, when the shops will close at 9 o'clock.

RECOGNIZE ALL
LABOR'S RIGHTS

Declarations of National Chamber of Commerce Are Highly Significant.

APPROVAL WILL BE GENERAL

Action Shows That Organized Business Has Come to Recognize That Humanity and Justice Must Be Factors in the Labor Problem.

The 12 paragraphs defining the attitude of the national chamber of commerce on the labor question make a body of doctrine which will be accepted almost in its entirety by labor. The right to organize is fully recognized, the right to a wage which shall be more than a living is declared, and the principle that there should be no reduction in wages, until the possibility of reducing costs in all other directions has been exhausted, is laid down. That these and similar declarations are made by organized business is not, in this day, surprising, but not many years ago no such agreement of opinion between capital and labor would have been possible.

Many employers cling obstinately to the belief that the workers went beyond their rights when they insisted upon collective bargaining, while relatively few hold any such doctrine now. It is true, also, that at no very distant time in the past most employers had never entertained any other theory of wages than that labor is a commodity which could be hammered down in price by any method that was suitable for hammering down the price of pig iron.

The attitude of the chamber, therefore, represents a highly significant progress in the thinking of business men. More and more they have been considering humanity and justice as factors in the labor problem. There is, of course, much room for further progress, and upon such progress will rest the security and prosperity of the country.—New York World.

Vanderlip Warns Capital.

Frank A. Vanderlip sees a "labor revolution" right here in the United States if capitalists do not meet pressing demands. Capital, he thinks, must recognize the propriety of labor's claim for a larger voice in industrial affairs and see to it that the worker is brought into such relations to his job that he will work honestly and sympathetically.

At present, he said, workers are losing interest in their jobs and are deliberately reducing production. A ship built before the war which took 200,000 hours of labor now takes 400,000 hours.

"Labor's demands for shorter hours, shop committees and representation are just so far as they relate to the conditions surrounding the workmen," he declared. "I do not think that labor wants a voice in determining industrial policies."

Labor Conditions in Quebec.

The royal commission on industrial relations spent a day in Quebec and heard much evidence regarding labor conditions in the city. Most of the witnesses agreed that the dominion government would have to find some remedy for the high cost of living. How the various locals, comprising the National (Roman) Catholic union, a body 18,000 strong, had avoided strikes by conciliatory methods was described to the commission by a delegation from the organization. Its chief witness was the Rev. Abbe Fortin, chaplain of the union. This delegation particularly inveighed against the interference of outsiders, such as the officers of international unions, in their affairs, which they contended they were quite well able to look after themselves.

Labor Intensely Patriotic.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made the following statement at the close of the recent convention, at which he was re-elected:

"Just ahead is the most critical trial for labor. Labor in America has demonstrated during the last two weeks that it has the patriotic zeal that actuated it to render signal service to the government during the war.

"This has not been succeeded by any kind of radicalism. It frowns upon any such influence. It demands only a fair deal and it believes that employers will meet it half way."
